Access UCSB
Meeting Agenda
July 16th, 2012
LOCATION: Bren Hall Lecture Room

Mission: Access UCSB is the external world's opportunity to understand the access points to work with UC Santa Barbara for research, education, facilities usage, and product development. It is hosted by the Corporate Affiliates Program and Technology Management Program and is designed to help companies find out how to make the most of what UC Santa Barbara's has to offer.

Time   Presentation

3:00-3:10 pm Welcome and Introduction to UCSB –Rod Alferness, Dean, UCSB College of Engineering

3:10-3:20 pm Corporate Affiliates Program - Leslie Edwards, Business Development Director

3:20-3:35 pm Mentor Graphics- & Why to Recruit at UCSB- Jami White, Human Resource Specialist

3:35-3:50 pm Raytheon & Its Successes with UCSB- Andreas Hampp, New Technologies Director

3:50-4:10 pm Examples of Facilities for Industry use (NanoFab Lab)- Brian Thibault, Project Scientist

4:10-4:20 pm The Institute for Energy Efficiency- Dave Auston, Executive Director

4:20-4:40 pm Technology Management Program (TMP) – Mike Panesis, Program Manager

4:40-4:50 pm Phone Halo- TMP Past Winners- Chris Herbert and Christian Smith

5:50-6:00 pm Reception/Networking

Directions to Access UCSB event at UC Santa Barbara:

Location: From Highway 101 South, take exit 217 to UCSB, right at the Steck Circle, left into parking lot 10 at the first light: Top level of parking structure will be the designated parking spots. Event will take place in Bren Hall

UC SANTA BARBARA
engineering and the sciences